- B) Article II
- C) Article III
- D) Article IV

Answer: B) Article II

Explanation:

Article II of the U.S. Constitution explicitly establishes the executive branch, outlining the powers, responsibilities, and election process of the President and Vice President. The President can request declarations of war and is the Commander-in-Chief of the armed forces, but the formal authority to declare war resides with Congress. The other options?vetoing legislation, appointing judges, and granting pardons?are formal presidential powers.

- D) The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court

Answer: A) The Vice President

Explanation:

The 25th Amendment explicitly states that the Vice President assumes the presidency if the President dies, resigns, is removed from office, or becomes incapacitated. This process ensures continuity of government and stability during crises.

Additional detail:

Other amendments, like the 25th, deal with presidential succession and incapacity, while the 20th sets the terms for congressional and presidential terms.

Historical Executive Actions and Policies
