"The Cat Who Tailed a Thief" is the tenth installment in this long-running series, published in 1987. It continues the tradition of blending lighthearted, often humorous storytelling with intricate mysteries that engage readers' deductive skills.

The Central Premise

The core plot revolves around the theft of a valuable object—specifically, a rare artifact or artifact-related item—within the community, prompting Jim Qwilleran and his perceptive cats to investigate. The story hinges on the cats' ability to observe and interpret human behavior, leading to their involvement in tracking down the culprit.

What sets this installment apart is the cat's active role in "tailing" or shadowing the thief, effectively turning their feline instincts into a detective tool.
