Sample questions from the 2013 papers often tested students' knowledge of definitions, concepts, and simple applications.

- Question: Define 'recidivism' and explain its significance in criminology.

Juveniles may adopt delinquent behaviors by associating with peers who engage in criminal activities, observing and imitating their actions, and receiving reinforcement for such behaviors. This theory emphasizes the importance of environment and social relationships in shaping juvenile conduct. Prevention strategies, therefore, focus on positive role models and modifying peer associations to reduce delinquency.
