Origins and Brand Evolution

Historical Background

Axe Kos, often simply referred to as Axe in various markets, originated as a sub-brand under the larger multinational corporation Unilever. Launched in the early 2000s, Axe quickly gained popularity among young men by emphasizing masculinity, confidence, and modern grooming. The brand initially gained traction through provocative advertising campaigns that challenged traditional notions of masculinity.

Over time, Axe expanded its product lineup beyond deodorants and body sprays to include shower gels, hair styling products, and skincare items. The "Kos" suffix, which is less common in Western markets, suggests a regional branding strategy, possibly aimed at the Southeast European or Balkan markets to foster local brand affinity.
