Deep Dive into Notable Past Questions from the 2009 May Sitting

To understand the exam's expectations, it's crucial to analyze specific questions that appeared in the 2009 May paper.

Question 1: Investment Appraisal Using NPV and IRR

This question often requires candidates to evaluate a proposed investment project with given cash flows and a required rate of return. Typical steps include:

- Calculating the NPV considering the discount rate.
- Finding the IRR by trial or interpolation.
- Comparing these results with the company's hurdle rate.
- Making a recommendation based on the analysis.

Key points for candidates:

- Be proficient in discounting cash flows.
- Understand the differences and limitations of NPV and IRR.
- Be able to interpret the results in a strategic context.

Question 2: Cost of Capital Calculation

Candidates might be asked to compute the WACC for a firm with given data on debt, equity, and market values. This involves:

- Calculating individual component costs.
- Weighting each component based on market values.
- Incorporating tax considerations where relevant.

Important tips:

- Remember to adjust the cost of debt for tax shields.
- Use current market data for accuracy if provided.

This question tests understanding of effective working capital policies, including:

- Cash management techniques (e.g., cash budgets).
- Managing receivables (e.g., credit policies).
- Inventory control methods (e.g., EOQ).
- Payables management.

Candidates should focus on:

- The trade-offs between liquidity and profitability.
- The impact of policies on cash flow.

Question 4: Scenario-based Risk Analysis

Candidates may be presented with a scenario involving a strategic project with uncertain cash flows. They are expected to:

- Conduct sensitivity analysis.
- Identify key risk factors.
- Recommend risk mitigation strategies.

Preparation tip:

- Practice case studies with varying assumptions.

Question 5: Strategic Financial Management Decisions

A typical question may involve choosing between financing options or restructuring a company's capital base to optimize financial performance and strategic goals.

Preparation Tips for the 2009 May SFM Past Questions

To excel in SFM exams, especially with past questions like those from May 2009, candidates should adopt a strategic preparation approach:
