According to tradition, the Ethiopian Church was established in the 4th century during the reign of King Ezana of Axum, making it one of the oldest Christian communities in the world.

The development of this canon was influenced by early Christian theological debates, local traditions, and the church's desire to include texts deemed spiritually significant.

The canon was formalized over centuries, with notable contributions from church fathers and scholars who translated and compiled these sacred texts. The translation into Ge'ez solidified the texts' status as doctrinal authority and liturgical cornerstone.
